AFFORDABLE TRAINING...

We offer affordable training to become a driving instructor with our payment plan £50 per week.

WHAT IS INVOLVED TO BECOME A DRIVING INSTRUCTOR

There are three parts to the training, which can be done in as little as 3 months or take as long as you need it to depending on your current work commitments.

Part One - Theory Test

It's the first of 3 tests you will have to pass to qualify as an Approved Driving Instructor (ADI).

There are two parts to this test:

Multiple-choice questions - You have 1 hour and 30 minutes to answer 100 multiple-choice questions

Hazard Perception - This consists of 14 video clips. You get points for spotting the developing hazards as soon as they start to happen. We will supply you with all the theory training material you need to get you through both parts of the tests.

Part two - Driving Test

It's the second of the 3 tests you have to pass to qualify as an ADI.

It's a test of your driving ability. You'll pass your part two test if you make no more than 6 driving faults (and as with pupils, don't pick up any Serious or Dangerous faults)

Part Three - Instructor Test

It's the last of the 3 tests you have to pass to qualify as an ADI.

This is a test of your ability to teach pupils.

The ADI Part 3 exam is divided into three key areas; lesson planning, risk assessment and teaching and learning strategies. The Part 3 exam takes around one hour and is conducted by a specially qualified driving examiner

Becoming A Driving Instructor

Becoming a driving instructor and completely changing my career was daunting to start with, However I was fortunate enough to have Gary Battison as my instructor. Gary is extremely knowledgable, professional but also friendly and made every lesson enjoyable, then going on to passing my tests first time would not have been possible without the training I received from him. I cannot Thank or recommend Gary enough for his continued support

Ged Coad

My experience of training.

My experience of training with Gary Battison was excellent.. Gary is one awesome instructor, very very supportive in more ways than just training. His skill of reading each individual and adjusting his style to suit the trainee is amazing . His knowledge of every aspect of driver training and driving instructor training is unbeatable.

MARK TURNER

Driving instructor training

I started training with System Driving School to become a driving instructor at quite a late age and so anticipated a hard climb to make the grade. My trainer Gary Battison equipped me with the skills needed to not only pass all my tests first time, part 3, 31st May 2017, but also gave me a foundation to carry me through the early stages. Kevin and the team at System were, and still are, always there to help and support if problems arrive. I would strongly recommend them.

Jim Miller

The best Driving School by a Million miles.

As soon as I met the team at System Driving School I knew it was the team for me. Gary's training style is infectious and rubs off on you, he manages to be professional, humorous and knowledgable all at once. Even after passing Gary is still willing and able to help you out with any little problems you may have, as does the rest of the team at System Driving School. If you are thinking of switching franchise or just starting out as an ADI, you will not go wrong with System Driving School.

SEAN WHITELAMB

I have had Gary Battison as my Driving Instructor Trainer. He has untold knowledge, that he shares in a positive good manner. He looks at not just how to train you, but how you can help & train your learners. With his help, patience & knowledge. I passed my final Instructor exam with a Grade 'A'.

It was a big career change for me to train as a driving instructor. But now i have done it i so pleased. I can highly recommend their Driving Instructor Trainer Gary Battison. He has a wealth of experience, is thorough, knowledgable and a lovely person. Because of Gary i am now a qualified instructor with a full diary. I still have the ongoing support from him and all the team at System Driving School which is brilliant.

Alan

Quality driving instructor training.

October 2017 I trained as a driving instructor with Gary Battison. Gary is a top trainer; he is able to pass on his considerable knowledge whilst making the training process enjoyable. Highly recommended if you're thinking about training to be a driving instructor.
